Historic multifunctional property with co-working space in Torremolinos

El Molino de Batán is a historic property located in Torremolinos, on the Costa del Sol. Originally a large party hall, it has been transformed into a modern co-working center, featuring over 20 workstations, meeting rooms, and a fully equipped kitchen. The property is set on a generous plot of 2,775 m², providing ample space and privacy.

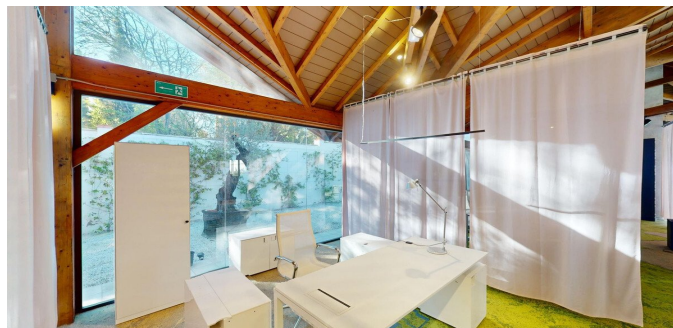

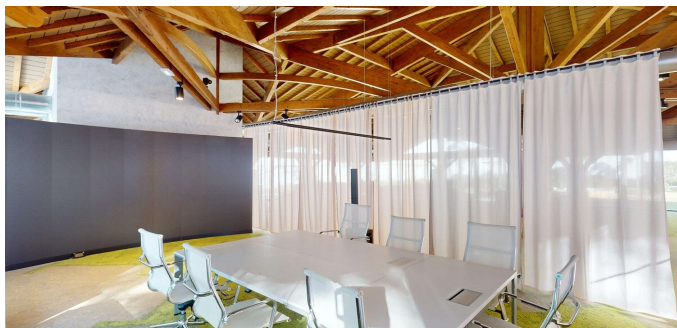

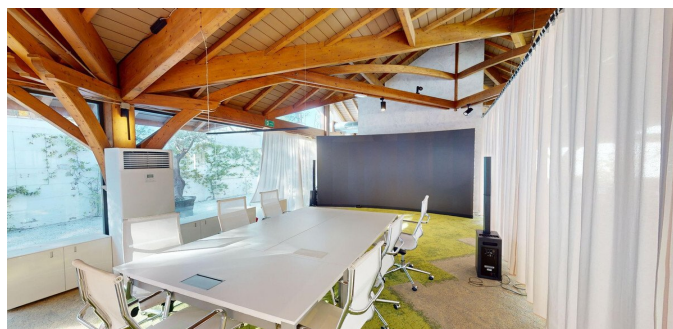

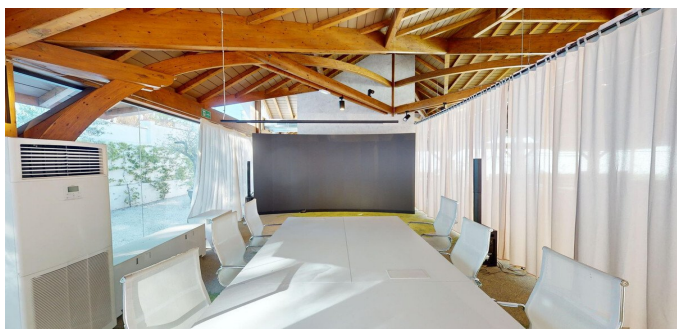

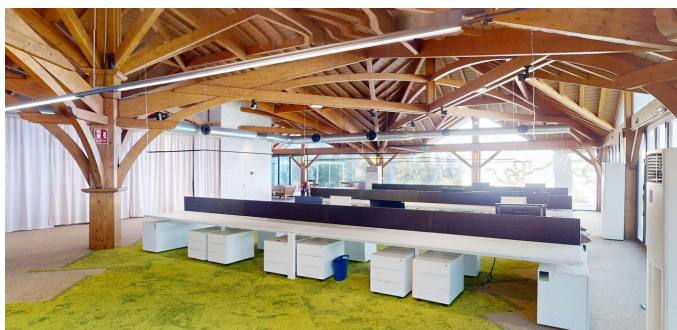

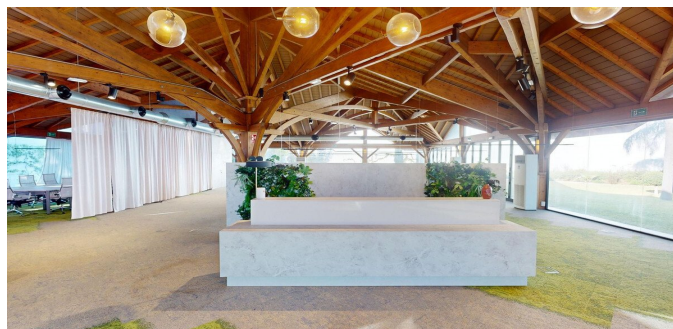

In addition to the co-working facilities, the property includes an old mansion from the early 20th century, currently undergoing restoration. Surrounded by lush vegetation, this unique space is ideal for a company looking to establish its headquarters or for those interested in restoring it as a function room.
