New-build development with sea views in Málaga

This building under construction is located in the desirable Pacífico area of Málaga, just a short walk from the seafront promenade. It features 6 exclusive loft-style apartments across 5 modern floors, designed for comfort and energy efficiency.

Each unit benefits from a south-facing orientation, ensuring plenty of natural light. Some apartments will offer pleasant sea views. The building will be completed to a high standard, making it an attractive investment opportunity with the potential for a tourist rental license.
