New development project of Townhouses in Benalmaden. A large new complex is completed in 2020. Located on the elevation, the complex includes an innovative architecture that covers natural terrain. All townhouses come out on the south, with a beautiful view of the sea. Design, technology and functionality guarantee the comfort and well-being of the future owner. Fried outer walls decorated with glass balustrades, organically fit into the environment. Spacious interiors are thoughtfully designed to provide a bright life of open planning with an abundance of natural light. The use of exquisite high-quality materials is visible to the smallest details. Energy-efficient homes with minimal carbon trail. The complex is located in the picturesque Andalusian White Village of Benalmaden Pueblo. His historic streets are replete with shops and many charming restaurants, and its historic streets are decorated with many colors.
