House

Villa Hayen, a unique luxury villa, designed by the architect of Reza Higuera's N Resort, like his own family house. It consists of 497 interior M2 and 2,813 m2 of the site, characterized by its exciting view of the sea. The main premise of this project was to maximize brightness in all rooms by filling out them with natural light. An unusual form makes this villa with an exclusive and unique design, as from the point of view of architecture and appearance. Garden of wavy, smooth and modern lines. Panoramic pool invites you to relax. Spectacular view of the sea in Fuengirola Bay. The main level is in this beautiful house you will get access through a wooden door, which leads to a spacious lobby connecting both floors, and leads to a living room with a height of 7 meters. Facade with facing in the center of glass to see beauty overlooking the garden.

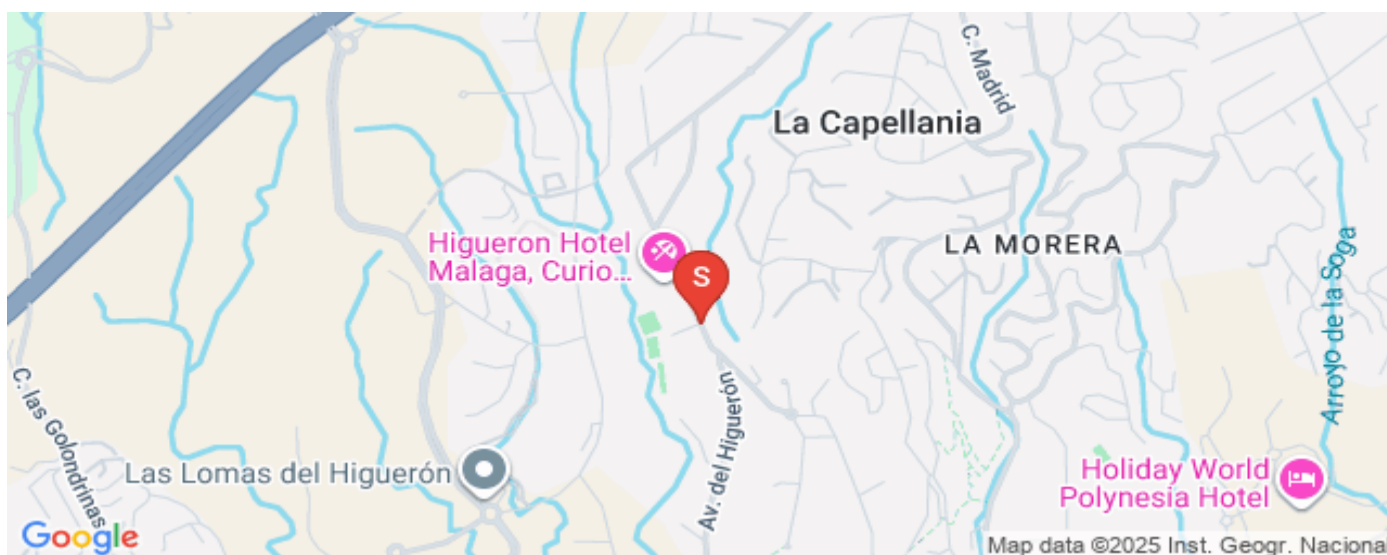

An open kitchen with a large window and views related to the living room.

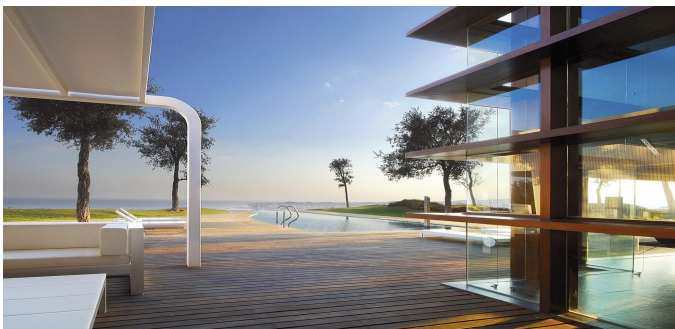

The main bedroom with a dressing room and a bathroom and a hydromassage shower-massage bathroom. Exterior Indoor and outdoor terrace with relaxation area, jacuzzi, landscaped pool with beach platform and tropical garden with relaxation area in deep late.

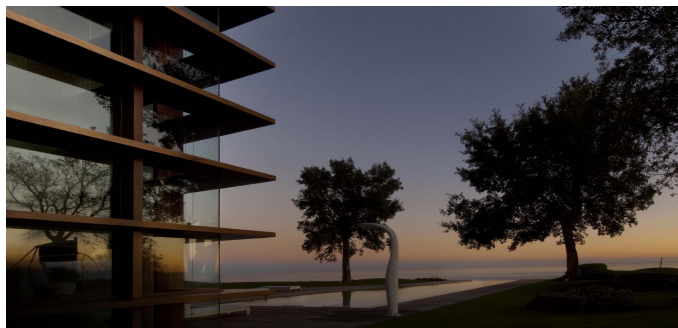

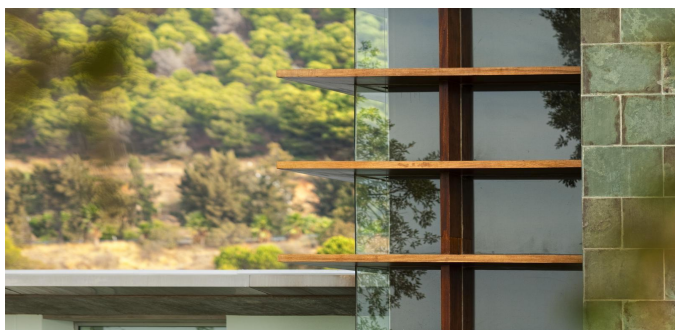

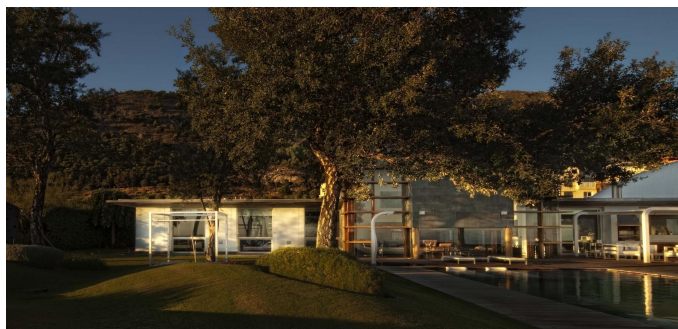

Two garage spaces, storeroom and basketball court.

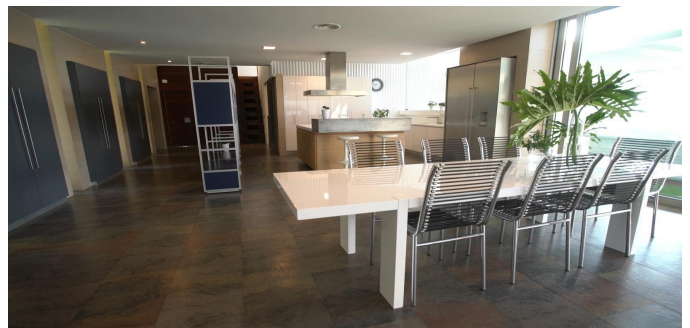

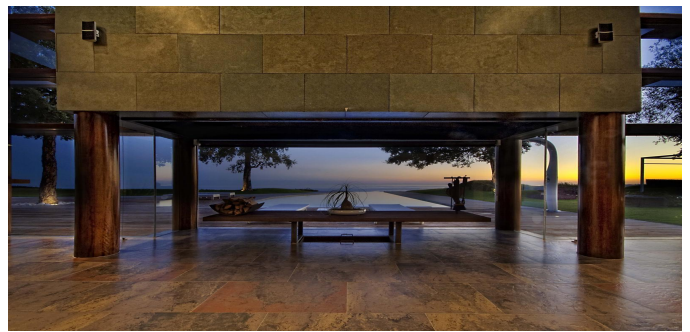

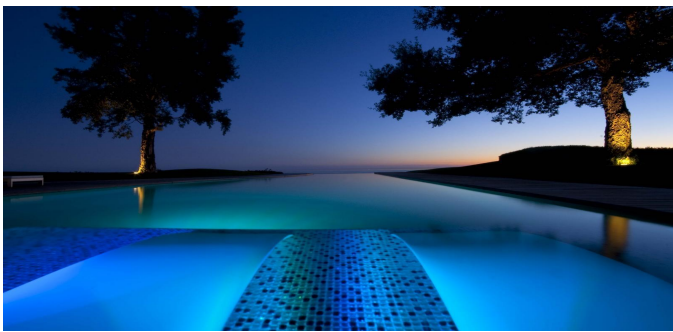

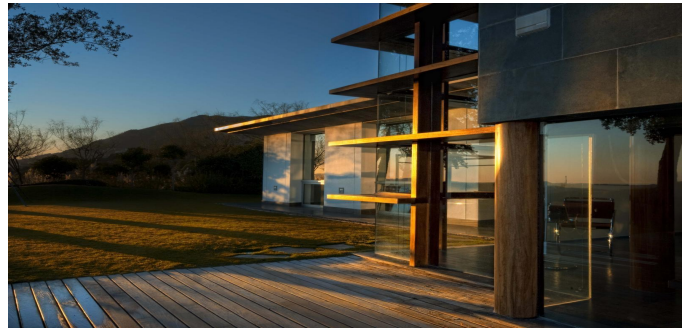

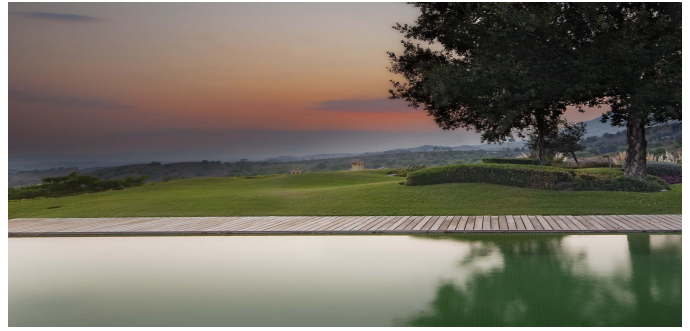

Top level relaxing or movie area.

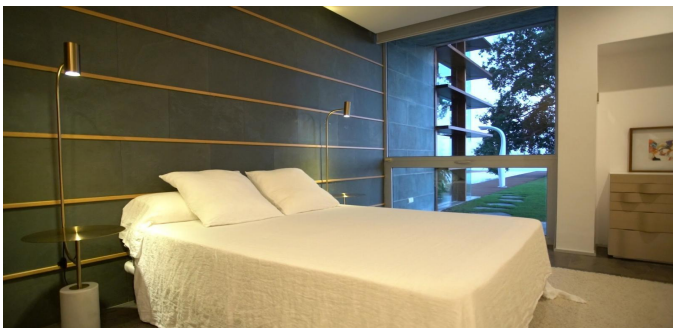

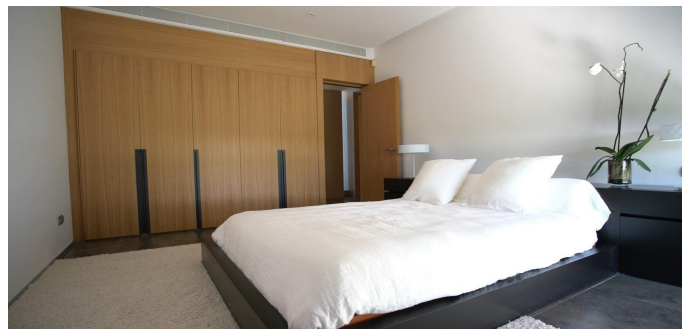

Additional room.
