Luxury hospitality estate in Guadalhorce Valley

This historic Andalusian Posada, originally built in 1852, has been elegantly restored into a premium country inn, offering luxury accommodation for up to twelve guests across six beautifully appointed suites. Nestled in the picturesque Guadalhorce Valley, the estate combines authentic architecture with modern comforts, providing a unique hospitality experience.

Set on approximately 5,700 m² of landscaped gardens, the property features a spectacular swimming pool with integrated jacuzzi, a charming restaurant, and a welcoming reception area. The magnificent Master Suite includes a private jacuzzi and sauna, while the owner's residence offers additional living space. This estate presents an exceptional opportunity for those looking to continue a successful hospitality business or create a luxurious retreat.
