Villa in Malaga

Residential building with multiple use options in Malaga

This residential building is located in one of the most exclusive areas of Malaga, next to El Limonar. With a constructed area of 300 m² spread over three floors, it features two apartments and a restaurant, making it ideal for private homes, vacation rentals, or a hospitality business.

Built in 1990, the property requires renovation but offers exceptional investment potential due to its prime location and versatility. It is well-connected to the highway and close to public transportation, providing easy access to the city center and beautiful beaches.
