New development of 60 apartments with communal pool in Alhaurín de la Torre

This new development features 60 apartments, including penthouses and ground floor units with terraces, located in Alhaurín de la Torre. This area is highly valued in Malaga for its natural surroundings, family-friendly atmosphere, and excellent connectivity.

The development is set within a gated community with well-maintained common areas, providing a safe and private environment. Residents can enjoy tranquility surrounded by parks, schools, and various services. The apartments are designed to maximize space and light, featuring an open-plan layout that connects the kitchen and living area, leading to a private terrace through large windows.

Common facilities include a swimming pool for adults, a children's pool, and a fully equipped indoor gym, all complemented by private parking and storage space.
