House in Malaga

Traditional cortijo with garden and parking in Campanillas

This traditional Málaga-style detached house is located in Campanillas, just 15 minutes from Málaga city center. Set in a peaceful natural environment, it offers excellent access to main roads, services, and the coast, making it a high-potential residential and tourism project.

The property features approximately 400–435 m² of built area on an urban plot of around 3,500 m², distributed over two floors. It includes between 6 and 10 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a spacious living room with a fireplace, and several adaptable rooms. The exterior boasts a large garden with fruit trees, a terrace, a balcony, and a private parking area. Originally built in the early 20th century, the house is in good condition and presents excellent opportunities for upgrading or expansion.
