Villa in Malaga

Luxury 5-room home with sea views in El Mirador, Costa del Sol

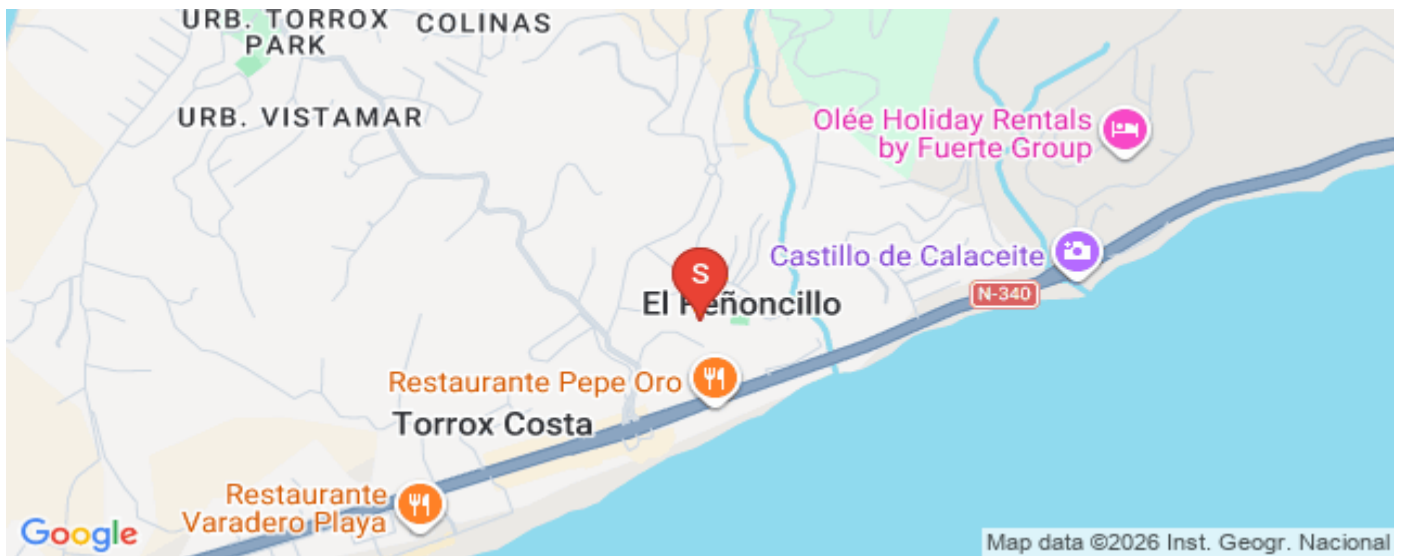

If you dream of owning a home on the Costa del Sol in Spain, now is the time to take a look. El Mirador Spa & Resort offers a limited number of architect-designed luxury homes, all privately owned. Each home is built to the highest Danish standards, featuring modern and sustainable designs with integrated solar cells, underfloor heating, and climate control in all rooms.

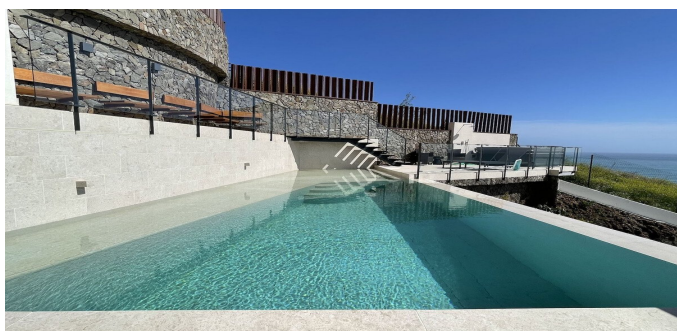

Each residence boasts a minimum of three terraces with stunning sea views, and the resort includes a spa, fitness center, large pool, and landscaped communal areas, all providing fantastic panoramic views of the Mediterranean. As a homeowner, you can expect lower energy bills and the opportunity to participate in facility management, allowing you to rent out your home when not in use, with expected returns of around 5-6% per year.
