House in Casares

Three-bedroom finca with private pool in Casares

This charming finca features three bedrooms and two bathrooms, set on a generous 12,000 m² plot. Located at the entrance of Casares village, it offers easy access and a peaceful environment, complemented by spectacular mountain and west-facing views.

The property includes a private pool and three wells providing ample water supply. While electricity is not currently installed, a connection point has been paid for, and the owner utilizes solar panels for energy. The land is primarily covered with trees, making it a unique opportunity for those seeking tranquility and natural beauty.
