Three sea-view villa plots in La Paloma

This collection of three plots offers a unique opportunity for buyers looking to develop a coherent villa scheme in La Paloma. Located in a quiet residential area, these plots provide sea-view potential and a low-density setting, making it an attractive option for boutique builders or smaller developers.

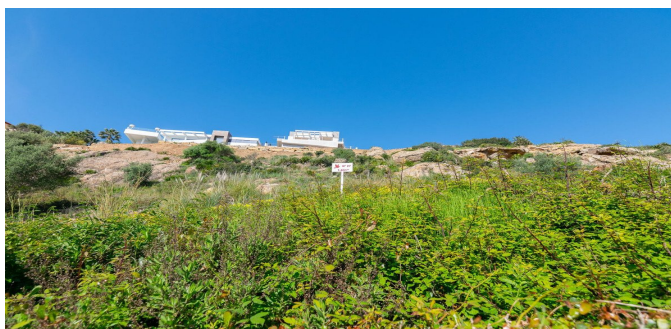

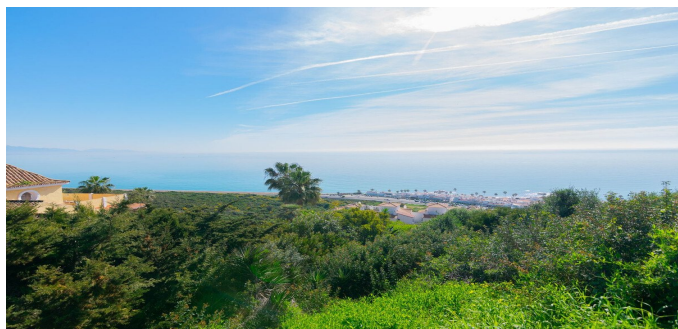

With a total plot area of 4,113 m² and an indicative buildable area of 1,371 m², this investment presents genuine upside potential. The area is well-suited for phased private investment or development, and an additional corner reserve parcel may also be available.
